BUSINESS IS GOOD
ACROSS THE STREET FROM THE ELEVATOR.

The story of a French cabaret girl who was forced to spy on those who frequented her little cafe. See "The Girl Philippa" at the Lyceum Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 15 and 16.

Mrs. Wm. Fairchild, Mrs. L. T. Sears, and Mrs. W. T. Skipwith of Amarillo, and Sam Massey of Minneapolis, Minn., motored from Amarillo one day last week and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Skipwith.

A letter from Lewis A. Yantis from Athens, Texas, says that he has enlisted in the navy. He enlisted as a musician. Mr. Yantis has been an employee of the News at Clovis up until about three weeks ago, when he left here for Athens.

Cattle! Cattle! Cattle! We have them. Extra high grade, priced right and you can get them without a dollar payment. Rangan Land and Cattle Co.

All the charm and magnetism with which Robert W. Chambers imbued his heroine, "The Girl Philippa"—all the endearing ways he gave her—all the beauty and modesty and wholesomeness, which made her so popular with the millions of readers of the Cosmopolitan Magazine has been transmitted to the screen in all her picturesqueness by dainty Anita Stewart. See it at the Lyceum Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday May 15 and 16.

The Clovis National Bank publishes an excellent statement in this issue of the News. It shows deposits to the amount of $317,919.06 and cash and sight exchange amounting to over $141,000. The statement shows a fine increase in deposits over the statement made 60 days ago and the officials of the bank can well feel proud of the showing the institution has made.

L. M. DeFord, advertising man at Lukart & Company's store, returned the first of the week from Oklahoma City, where he went to enlist in the officers' reserve corps. Mr. DeFord had intended to offer his services in the aerial service, but decided to enlist as above. Unfortunately his application was rejected on account of his eyes, and he was compelled to return without getting into the service at this time. Mr. DeFord is very hopeful that he will be able to pass the examination later and expects yet to get into the service.

G. McDuff Gamble, who lives northeast of town, says he figures he has a fine prospect to raise a big wheat crop this year. Mr. Gamble says that last year he made a good yield of wheat without any spring rain to amount to anything and that with the fine season in the ground now he feels he is sure to raise a bumper crop. Mr. Gamble says that wheat is not the only thing from which he gets a revenue from his farm. He is now getting about a hundred eggs a day and says that during the past thirty days he has marketed over thirty dollars worth of eggs besides setting a great number at home.
